

Welcome to the Toolbox of JenaWirtschaft

The Toolbox is the service and download section of JenaWirtschaft. Here we provide our partners in science and industry cost-free and/or cost-effective information and media about Jena.

Here, for instance, you find photos and pictures without copyright restrictions, texts, presentations, publications and promotional material about the technology location Jena.

These materials can be downloaded and are intended for non-commercial purposes. Individual transfers can be arranged for brochures, fair systems and similar presentation material that have to be transported.

The imposing consulting room of JenaWirtschaft can be booked for presentations. Equipped with modern ambience and presentation technology, it offers a free view of the Jena market place and is perfectly suitable for consulting rounds in a familiar and personal atmosphere.
